Tasting Note:

The nose is fresh and vibrant with black cherry and red currant aromas complimented by leather, dried tobacco leaf and licorice notes. The palate is reminiscent of a good Chianti Classico, with its trademark red cherry, soft tannin and bright food friendly acidity. Think of the Pipe Down 2023 as your new vino da tavola and serve alongside rich meat dishes, cured meats and tomato sauce-based dishes. Think grilled steak, antipasti, pizza or pasta al pomodoro.
